President Wilson's personal representtion of the policy to be pursued.

The discussion at the cabinet meetative in Mexico, was in conference here Sir Lionel Carden, the British minister. Neither Mr. Lind nor Sir Lionel would repeat for publication the gist of their conversation, but it is believed away with fixed ideas of the that the opinions of the two men differ nation of President Wilson widely regarding the Mexican problem and the part the United States should play in its solution.

Lind's Stay Prolonged. It developed tonight that Mr. Lind's in the negotiations is recorded.

Unwilling to admit another fallure on the part of Washington to bring about the elimination of President Huerta, John Lind, President Wilson's jecting the American demands made no personal representative, nevertheless falled today to manifest any enthusiasm over the prospects of Huerta giving up office.
